GAIN EXPERIENCE WORKING WITH YOUTH THIS SUMMER!

The LiFEsports Summer Camps combine a play-based social skills curriculum with a summer sports camp where girls and boys, ages 5 to 14, from vulnerable circumstances learn and play in an environment based on teamwork and fair sports-play. This year, LiFEsports will be hiring for both our Campus-Based and Community-Based camps.

Camp Dates:

Campus-Based (OSU Campus): June 13th – July 8th

Community-Based (Beatty Community Center): June 6th – July 29th

Recreation Leader (Work hours "Campus": 6:50am-3:30pm) Work hours "Community": 8:30am-3:30pm)

- Provides campers with sport instruction designed to foster social competence during one-hour sessions throughout the day.
- Facilitates sport activities to the group of youth following the LiFEsports curriculum.

Chalk Talk Leader (Work hours "Campus": 6:50am-3:30pm) Work hours "Community": 8:30am-3:30pm)

- Facilitates social competency topics through classroom and play-based activities as outlined by Chalk Talk curriculum.
- Practices behavioral management techniques to ensure a cooperative group environment.

Group Counselor (Work hours "Campus": 6:50am-3:30pm) Work hours "Community": 8:30am-3:30pm)

- Supervises and mentors a group of LiFEsports campers for the entire duration of camp.
- Assists the recreation leaders and Chalk Talk leaders during program activities.

Community-Based Specific Positions:

Science Leader (Work hours: 8:30am-3:30pm)

- Provides campers with science instruction during 45-minute sessions throughout the day.
- Facilitates and engages youth in hands-on science activities to help students explore and understand important concepts in science.
- Supports Unity Fridge as they facilitate activities for campers at the community garden.

Art and Enrichment Leader (Work hours: 8:30am-3:30pm)

- Alternates between providing campers with art instruction and enrichment instruction during 45-minute sessions throughout the day.
- Facilitates activities that develops campers' curiosity to learn something new and fun and explore their creativity and imagination.
